Eligibility: Students must have at least a 2.75 GPA to study in the Faculty of Arts. Students studying in the Faculty of Business must have at least a 3.2 GPA.

Program Dates: Students may attend the University of Groningen for the fall semester (September to December), spring semester (February to July), or academic year.

Cost: Students pay their normal CofC tuition and are responsible for their food and housing expenses in Groningen.

Housing: A non-profit housing office manages about ten furnished International Student Houses with shared kitchens, showers and toilets. There are single and double rooms in these buildings. Every International Student House has one or two “student managers.” These people are students themselves, usually Dutch, and also live at the International Student House.

Subjects Offered: Students studying in the Faculty of Arts program have a variety of courses taught in English to choose from including Communication, Sociology, Anthropology, History, American Studies, and Political Science. The Faculty of Business also offer a variety of business and economics courses in English.

Credit: The courses taken at Groningen must be pre-approved by the appropriate academic department for potential transfer credit.
