Humanities and Social Sciences:

 Multi-disciplinary courses in Humanities and Social Sciences:

HSS protocol for humanities sign-offs for study abroad credit by Prof. Hays.

1. Students don’t need to email nor do they need an appointment. Just drop off the green form ALONG WITH syllabi for any class they want us to review. We will not assess a class unless we have a syllabus. [Our office is located at 2 Greenway – small beige house behind Randolph Hall, adjacent to St. Philip street.]

2. Students should FIRST take the approval form to a course’s “home” department. For example, if the course is Irish History, then the first stop should be the History department. If the course is New Media, then stop by Communication. If it is not clear, then we can advise.

3. Students should be sure to have contact information listed on the form.

4. Students should clearly indicate which classes are for review. We will not read through an entire brochure.

5. Students should expect to wait at least three days.

6. Students MUST be patient and polite to HSS folks
