Program Information:

This program provides students an opportunity to study upper level French in Paris, France for three weeks. The program will provide 6 credit hours total: 3 hours in FREN 361 (Current Issues in France) and FREN 390 (Special Topics: A History of Paris and its Architecture). Both courses will be taught in French. Students will reside in a residence centrally located in Paris. The daily schedule while in Paris includes classes as well as visits to museums, sites, and other monuments inside and outside of Paris. Historic sites include the Arc-de-Triomphe, Champs-élysées, the Sacré-Coeur, the Musée du Louvre, the Orsay Museum, etc.

This program involves walking for long periods of time on a daily basis.

Program Directors:

Dr. Martine Hiers, Department of French and Francophone Studies, hiersm@cofc.edu, 843-953-6715

Dr. Hiers is a Senior Instructor of French and the Director of the Comparative Literature Program at the College of Charleston. She has directed several programs in France including the semester program in La Rochelle, France in 2008 and the Paris program summer 2012 and 2013.
