COURSE APPROVAL PROCESS

Once you have identified a potential exchange study abroad program, you will need to work with the appropriate departments at the College of Charleston to have the courses approved for transfer credit. You will need to provide a description or syllabus to the appropriate department chair or appointed professor for evaluation. See the course approval directory to know whom to contact. It is the discretion of the professor to award any and all transfer credit. All approved courses must be documented on the course approval form. See CIE for this form (Note: you must first attending advising session or meet with a study abroad advisor before receiving this form).

GRADES

The College of Charleston transfer credit policy requires students to earn the equivalent of a U.S. "C" or better to receive credit for an approved course (a "C-" will NOT transfer back). Transfer grades do NOT appear on your official College of Charleston transcript and is therefore NOT factored into your College of Charleston GPA.

SCHOLARSHIPS

- Scholarships of $500- $2000 each are available to support CofC degree-seeking students to study abroad; eligibility is based on demonstrated financial need and academic merit. Applications can be found on the CIE website here:
