UNIVERSITY OF NOTTINGHAM
Nottingham, United Kingdom

The University of Nottingham is a comprehensive university consistently ranked among the top ten British universities. Its roots date back to 1877, and is set in extensive woodland, parks and playing fields, just three miles from the city centre. Approximately 120 miles north of London (about one-and-a-half hours by train), Nottingham’s central position and excellent road and rail links make it easily accessible. Nottingham is one of Britain’s most cosmopolitan cities geared towards the needs of a large student population.

Eligibility: Students must have a 3.0 GPA.

Program Dates: Students may attend the University of Nottingham for the fall semester (late September to December), spring semester (late January to mid-June), or academic year.

Cost: Students pay College of Charleston tuition and fees to study at University of Nottingham. Housing fees are paid directly to Nottingham. Most CofC financial aid will apply.

Housing: Students submit an application and are placed in University-managed accommodation. A variety of accommodation is available ranging from en-suite rooms in full board halls of residence on campus to independent living in self-catering flats off campus. Full details of the different types and costs of university accommodation are given at http://www.nottingham.ac.uk/crs

Subjects Offered: Most undergraduate courses in the faculties of Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Business, and Science are available to students.

Credit: The courses taken at Nottingham must be pre-approved by the appropriate academic department for potential transfer credit.

Application Deadline: April 1st for the fall semester, and September 15th for the spring semester. Those wishing to study Business, Communication or English courses must apply in March even if intending to enroll the following Fall or Spring semester.
