

HARRY AND REBA HUGE FOUNDATION STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose of scholarship

The Harry and Reba Huge Foundation Study Abroad Scholarship is designed to provide scholarships for a semester-long academic experience in Estonia. The scholarship will help cover the cost of the study abroad program.

Minimum Application requirements

Personal statement (2 pages, double-spaced) to include the following:

1. Nature of program; relevance to major/minor and value of program to overall academic experience and professional development;
2. Financial need: explanation of financial need and how the funds/award will be used;

Additional requirements:

3. Successful completion of at least 15 undergraduate or 9 graduate credit hours at the College of Charleston at the time of application;
4. 3.0 minimum GPA at time of application;
5. Two recommendation letters from faculty members: faculty recommendation letters addressing student's academic work in their class(es) and potential for success in study abroad;
6. If scholarship is awarded, student must present a written report on their experiences within six weeks of the conclusion of their program. The student must also be available to meet with the donors when requested.

Selection process

The Associate Provost for International Education shall convene a committee of no less than 3 individuals to make recommendations for the awards. Recommendations by the committee shall be available to the donors upon request before the awards are made.

About the Huge Foundation

The Harry and Reba Huge Foundation, based in Nebraska, provides scholarships and opportunities for student scholars with drive and potential to be leaders. Through international student and professional exchange and development programs, students, donors and teachers are given the chance to expand their view and excel.

Mr. Harry Huge is co-founder and chairman of the Harry and Reba Huge Foundation. Mr. Huge practices law nationally and internationally in the areas of commercial litigation in federal and state courts, international business and transaction law, corporate matters, including securities, venture capital, biotechnology, communication and investment transactions. Mrs. Reba Huge is co-founder and Vice Chair of the Harry and Reba Huge Foundation. A licensed real estate broker, Mrs. Huge is active in numerous civic organizations in Charleston (SC) including the Board of Directors of the South Carolina Aquarium, the Arts Council at College of Charleston School of the Arts, the Board of the Charleston Art and Antiques, among many others.